You can expect 99% uptime based on typical use and the arrival of a Free Service Loaner by 10AM the next business day.

OPTIONAL SERVICE PROGRAMS

Preventive Maintenance Programs

Preventive Maintenance programs can be purchased to maintain the superior performance of your ZOLL equipment. In most areas, ZOLL has authorized Biomedical representatives, who have been factory trained, to provide Preventive Maintenance on site at the Customer's location. These representatives are dispatched by the ZOLL Technical Support Contracts Department based on contract requirements. Upon completion of the Preventive Maintenance, the Service Technician will provide the customer with a Service Repair form for the work that was completed.

In the event that a ZOLL authorized Biomedical representative is not available in your area, arrangements will be made to send the devices to ZOLL Chelmsford Service Depot for service. A service loaner or loaners will be shipped to the customer's location for use during the time the units are in the ZOLL Service Depot.

ZOLL recommends that Preventive Maintenance be performed twice per year or every six (6) months.

Extended Warranty Programs

ZOLL Medical offers a variety of Extended Warranty programs. These programs are designed to help you to budget your maintenance costs and protect you against price increases. An Extended Warranty can be purchased at any time by contacting ZOLL Technical Support Contracts Department.

Biomedical/Service Training Program

ZOLL Technical Support offers a two-day training and certification program, which will enable the attendees to repair and calibrate the defibrillator. This can be purchased through your local ZOLL Sales Representative.

Rental Equipment

Rental Equipment is available for rental purposes on a monthly basis. This can be purchased through our Technical Support Department.

ZOLL Medical Depot Repair

ZOLL's product is designed, manufactured, distributed and serviced under strict controls set forth by ZOLL's Quality System. It has been designed to comply with requirements set forth by the FDA and various regulatory standards and bodies. Our Quality System is certified and audited annually by TUV Rheinland for compliance with ISO 9000. ZOLL received its certification in 1995.

The ZOLL Depot Repair Team is a group of highly skilled, trained professionals that have extensive experience in electronics, product application and process quality control.

The intense quality and environmental testing performed by this team at the factory can not be duplicated in any field environment.

- After receipt of the device at the Repair Depot, a Technical Support Repair Technician will verify the reported malfunction prior to opening the unit.
- The suspect failed board will be replaced with a known "good" test board to verify that the suspected failure is repaired.
- The test board is then replaced by the original "suspect failed board" to again verify the original failure.
- This process verifies that there were no internal connectivity issues that were resolved by just disconnecting and reconnecting a board and that the failure is attributed to the suspect circuit board.
- If the original fault reappears, a known "good" board from stock is installed.
- In most cases, extensive environmental testing is performed (hot soak, cold soak and vibration).
- Board level testing of the defective module is then performed.
- Recertification of each device is completed per factory specifications outlined in the device Service Manual.
- Device is held, pending root cause analysis of the defective module.
- Technical review is performed by the Technical Support Help Desk to verify that the root cause analysis and the replaced module(s) coincide with the reported malfunction.

Before any device is released for shipment, a thorough review of the complaint file is done by the Technical Support Help Desk and the Quality Assurance Department. This is to ensure that the technical evaluation of the reported failure was conclusive and that any determination is reviewed against the reported event. The device will be released for shipment based on the conclusion of this evaluation.
